Thirteenth Annual.

Proceedings of the Meeting Held at Lincoln, Neb.. January 19, 1905.---Special Meeting.

The thirteenth annual meeting of the National Duroc-Jersey Record association was called to order in the veterinary clinic building of the Nebraska State Farm at Lincoln, Neb., Thursday morning, Jan. 19, 1905, at 10:45 by President J. C. Woodburn of Marysville, Mo., there being about 150 breeders present.

Prof. E. A. Burnett of the State Agricultural college, gave the address of welcome. He said: "Nebraska should feel proud of her Duroc-Jersey breeders. I feel we ought to look on the men who breed Duroc-Jerseys as benefactors. If you visit our state fair at any time you will find the complexion of the hog redder than in other states and red hog men from other states find some of their hottest competition from Nebraska. Every breed must adapt itself to the needs of the country where it is bred. If not it will never become prominent. In two or three things the Duroc-Jerseys are superior or at least on a par with the other leading breeds. He is superior to any of the black breeds in fecundity in size of litter. In the number of pigs the red hog stands superior. He is growthy enough and has big enough bone and digestive capacity to attain sufficient weight to be marketed before fully matured. Meat goes on a pig cheaply. Pigs which mature at 250 or 300 pounds cost too much to get on the last few pounds. Durocs are still making the cheap gains when ready for market. There is very little difference between the breeds when it comes to putting on meat on 50-pound pigs. When you reach 250 pounds the one that is still growing is the one that is making the cheap gains. The Duroc is eminently the fittest hog for the corn belt. While the Duroc bone is big, it is not so good as in some other breeds. The feet are apt to go wrong. This can be overcome by attention to breeding and feeding. The experiment station is now working on the question of strength of bone. Prof. Henry has succeeded in adding one-third to the strength of bone without increasing its size. The experiment being carried on will determine if breeders can afford to feed more protein foods in order to strengthen the bone. Selection and not too rapid growth of pigs will help the feet." In closing the professor heartily welcomed the breeders from the various states and asked from the Nebraska breeders their support for the development of the experiment station.

C. C. Keil, of Ladora, Iowa, responded to the address of welcome in one of his good-natured talks, in which he pleaded with the young men and especially the young breeders to take advantage of his state agricultural college and learn at least a little of the practical things being taught in these institutions. Mr. Keil thanked the college faculty and the Nebraska breeders for their warm welcome and royal entertainment.

President Woodburn followed with his address:

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen:

Again we find ourselves in the annual session in the interest of the Duroc-Jersey hog. Many years have come and gone since first we organized our association and with each year we have noted the continued progress, advancement and prosperity of the body. In advancing the interests of the Duroc-Jersey hog we have advanced our own interests and added to our individual and collective prosperity. Starting with a few scattered members, our number is now more than twelve hundred of the most progressive, ambitious and successful stock raisers of the United States. Realizing that in unity there is strength we have banded together to make our association and our hog the greatest association and the greatest and best hog on earth. Indeed, in the line of competition, none other can show the marked advancement that we are able to show. The interest of each advancing year has numerically and financially enhanced the true status of our body. We have reasons indeed to congratulate ourselves upon the showing we have made to the civilized world, a position which must command confidence, honor and respect from all who are interested in one of the greatest industries which in the last few years has grown to such vast proportions. In the intellectual advancement of mankind he has been taught that the more heads there are together on a given subject, the more brain matter at work, the better and surer the results. No man can be circumscribed in his own sphere of life and be able to have that broad, elevated, comprehensive view of life and affairs. It requires the ideas of all to make a safe and conservative basis upon which to work. We can have the ideas and experiences of men, and by separating the wheat from the chaff retain the excellent part of all and profit immeasurably. And so it has been with us. We have had the advantage of the brains and experience of those who have given their lives to the productiveness of the hog, who are the master mechanics in raising him to an advantage, and we have annually met to give our experiences year by year, and by this means, and this only, have we been able to attain that enviable position in the markets of the world which we now retain. I congratulate you each and all upon your unparalleled success. May each year be brighter than ever, and each succeeding meeting prove more interesting, valuable and pleasant than the last. This, in all probability, will be the last meeting that I will be able to attend in your company. It is with the profoundest regret that I make this announcement, for I have been a member of your body almost from its inception. I have sat at your tables, I have taken an active part in the counsels of your body and have watched with admiration and pleasure the climbing of the association to the position it now occupies. I have sold out my entire interests, however, in my herd of Duroc-Jerseys and while at some future time I hope that I may be counted again among your number, yet, it may be some years to come. I want to tender my sincere thanks for the honors which you by your courtesy have seen fit to bestow upon me in days past. In every capacity I have tried to do the best my ability would allow. I have taken a heart-felt interest in everything that pertained to our society. What little I may have accomplished you are better able to tell than I am. But I want in parting to thank you each and all for what you have done for me and for the association. May the years that are coming bring you renewed strength and joy and prosperity. May the sunshine of happiness and contentment shine upon each and all of you, and the day come when you shall stand, as you do now, the strongest, greatest and most respected association of the kind in the world. Let there be no strife among you brethren. Bury forever any petty ambitions and jealousies which have not for their good the success of the society. Let the interests of the association rise higher and above personal rancor and discontent. Show the world that in our association are banded together men of nerve and courage who are working as a unit for the ultimate advantage of all and you will thereby forever stand united and impregnable before all the societies of like nature in the country.

Secretary Evans then read his report:

Gentlemen: It gives me much pleasure to meet with you in the great state of Nebraska, where we are led to believe the Durocs are becoming as numerous as flies and are fattening on alfalfa faster than the railway systems of the commonwealth can haul them to market. Each year the attendance at our meetings has increased and I believe our numbers are greater to-day than at any of our previous sessions.

The year has been an important one for the breed and the Duroc has made rapid advancement. At the great St. Louis World's Fair with the eyes of the entire country on the show, the Durocs were second in numbers to only one breed and in quality second to none. In competition with other breeds in the barrow contest the Red Hog was winner and in the show throughout more than ordinary attention was paid to our favorites. The impetus has already been felt at the secretary's office and we look for another record-breaking year in 1905.

The removal of the office, which was voted on Dec. 1, has been accomplished and has occasioned much extra work but we are better fitted for handling the immense amount of business that will doubtless fall to the office the next few months. Sales are doing better than two or three months ago and the indications are for better prices all along the line.

The report which follows will tell something of the immense amount of work the office has handled since we last met. The heavy expense was occasioned by the issuing of three herd books, the printing of the large number of World's Fair books and the advertising for the sales and the shows held at St. Louis, Chicago and Kansas City.

Afternoon Session. ©

During the recess lunch was served in one of the college buildings to the visiting members.

Meeting was called to order at 2 o'clock, the committee having checked up the proxies during the lunch hour.

On motion of Russell of Nebraska, the secretary was instructed to pay the validating agent the fee on the thirty-four return tickets from outside the state.

On motion of Kirkpatrick the secretary was instructed to send volumes 10, 11, 12 and 13 to the Nebraska experiment station.

Communications from H. A. Heath asking for encouragement for the Kansas State Fair, and from W. H. Weeks asking the association to take action regarding the American Royal show for 1905 were referred to the new board of directors for action.

PROCEEDINGS

The minutes of the special board meeting in St. Louis Oct. 12, and of the stockholders meeting in Chicago Dec. 1, referring to the removal of the office, were read and adopted.

On motion of Bowman of Nebraska the association proceeded to elect its officers for the ensuing year and nominations for president were called for. Taylor of Nebraska, in a well chosen speech, nominated E. Z. Russell of Nebraska. There being no further nominating, on motion of Wood, the secretary was instructed to cast the vote of the association for Mr. Russell.

On motion of Smith Brown, Robert J. Evans was nominated for secretary-treasurer and Mr. Woodburn was instructed to cast the entire vote of the association for Mr. Evans.

Keil moved that when the vote was taken for directors the five receiving the highest vote should be declared elected. Amended by Cameron "provided no two shall be from the same state."

The above question caused the most discussion of any that came up all day, many favoring the method of voting on one at a time until the full board be selected. The majority favored the amended motion and it was carried.

The following were nominated: Van Patten of Nebraska, Garrett, Kansas; Jones, Indiana; Hoffman, Iowa; Cutler, Illinois; McFarland, Missouri; Russell, Missouri; Kerr, Kansas; Marshall, Kansas; Harris, Nebraska; Roberts, Iowa; Mendenhall, Nebraska; and Davis, Kansas.

The vote was by ballot and Messrs. Parks of Illinois, Bowman of Nebraska, Sheldon of Iowa, and McFarland of Missouri, acted as tellers.

The vote resulted in the selection of Green McFarland, Sedalia, Mo., L. H. Roberts, Paton, Ia., N. B. Cutler, Carthage, Ill., W. F. Garrett, Portis, Kan., and Aaron Jones, Jr., South Bend Ind.

On motion the newly elected officers were appointed as a committee to draft an order of business to be followed at the annual meetings.

On motion of Jones the secretary was instructed to cast the entire vote represented for the increase of the capital stock by the addition of 800 shares at ten dollars each. Eight hundred and fifty-five votes were cast for the increase of stock.

Des Moines was selected as the place for the next annual meeting, the date to be fixed later by the board in conference with the Iowa Duroc-Jersey Breeders' association.

Moved that the new board look up the laws of Illinois and see if any changes in by-laws be necessary to make them in entire conformity to the corporation laws of the state.

PROCEEDINGS

On motion of Kirkpatrick it was voted to offer no money for premiums for fairs and shows this year.

On motion of Russell of Nebraska it was voted that after Feb. 1, 1905, not more than one share of stock be sold to any one individual or firm.

It was moved and carried that hereafter a transfer fee of one dollar be charged for transferring shares of stock on the association's books.

Adjourned.
